Our Story since 2003

Sol&Luna presents its new wood and leather collection — a true fusion of artisanal elegance and contemporary design

“Committed to the luxurious craft of leather”, perfectly captures the spirit of Sol&Luna. This Spanish manufacturer and retailer has gained international acclaim for its exquisitely crafted objects and furniture elegantly covered in leather by our master artisans.

In 2026, we are thrilled to unveil our latest wood and leather collection. Crafted from solid eucalyptus wood sourced from reforested forests, every piece is made with 100% sustainable materials and natural leather.

Founded in 2003, the brand began with natural cow leather and sustainable practices, evolving over 23 years from simple items like trays and flasks into seating, Deco, tables, coolers, and the innovative ‘Home in Order’ collection. Over time, we have also created extraordinary leather-covered pieces, including bicycles, Vespa motorbikes, and even cars proving that at Sol&Luna, the possibilities are limitless.

Our store in Madrid’s iconic Barrio de Salamanca delights clients while our collection reaches exclusive international retailers. From yachts in the Mediterranean to villas in France, restaurants, hotels, and chalets in the Alps, the fusion of European design and Paraguayan craftsmanship brings rare, exquisite objects to the world’s most exclusive settings.

Your support over the years has allowed us to revive the values and quality of traditional craftsmanship!

The Art of Leather

At Sol&Luna, we work exclusively with natural leather, meticulously handcrafted from premium cowhide and tanned through an ecological process.

Our work begins with our long-standing commitment to sourcing exceptional leather from Paraguay, supporting local development while ensuring outstanding quality at a fair and competitive price. We carefully select only the finest hides to create durable, elegant, and timeless pieces.

Throughout the vegetable-tanning process, great care is taken to preserve the leather's natural characteristics. Each finished product may display subtle variations in color, grain, or natural marks—unique traces from the animal's life. These features are not imperfections but rather a testament to authenticity, guaranteeing that every piece is truly one of a kind.

Sol&Luna leather is completely fireproof, making it suitable for contract and public-use projects.

100% vegetable-tanned leather – Premium cowhide – Hand-finished – Hand-stitched – Spanish design

Seating

Sol&Luna presents an exceptional collection of handcrafted chairs, armchairs, and counter and bar stools, all meticulously covered in leather and finished with our signature hand stitching. Each piece reflects the remarkable versatility of leather—able to adapt effortlessly to any interior style, from contemporary to classic.

Our journey began with the iconic Girón chair, a design that has traveled the world. Its distinctive blend of an iron structure with a hand-crafted leather seat set the foundation for what would become one of Sol&Luna's most celebrated creations.

Driven by the success of our seating in both residential and contract projects, we expanded our offering with new models that continue to embody our design philosophy: craftsmanship, durability, and timeless elegance.

Staying true to our motto "The Art of Leather", we now offer a complete collection of chairs fully wrapped in leather. By combining different seat silhouettes, bases, and heights, we have created a large range of unique seating collections, each designed to meet diverse aesthetic and functional needs.
